Family Council

A Few Seasonal Thoughts from the Markhaven Family Council for All Residents and their Loved Ones and Friends and for All Staff

Gifts

Some packages are lovely with fancy bow and tie;
The paper looks so glossy, it captivates the eye.
It's not the pretty ribbon or cover bright and bold,
But the spirit of the giver hidden in the fold.
Wrap a little of yourself and tie it with a smile,
Fill it full of warmth and love and give a gift worthwhile!

by Betty Cooke, Christmas Ideals, November 1976

The Family Album

Yesterday I took the album with the family pictures there,
And I reminisced so fondly of the days of yesteryear.

There was Granddad with his mustache and the dog he loved so much;
There was Grandma (how I miss her and her tender loving touch).

There was Father with his auto, (yes, it was a Model-T);
There was Dad and Mom together on their wedding day, you see.

There were, oh, so many pictures of yours truly as I grew
From tiny babe to sweet sixteen...I cherish each one, too,

Because I'm just old-fashioned I admit that tears appear
When I scan the family album and review the passing years.
