FAMILY COUNCIL

Important Dates in June

- June is Seniors' Month.

June is Seniors' Month in Ontario. It is a time to celebrate our seniors who built this province - and to recognize the contributions they have made in communities.

- Family Councils' Week, June 6-12

Family Councils Ontario states: "We are delighted to announce that this year's Family Council Week theme is " Family Councils: Inspiring Hope, Resiliency, and Change."

The Markhaven Family Council planned a special evening performance for residents and families on June 4, by Cara Chisholm, to celebrate both events.

Unfortunately, this special entertainment has been postponed to a later date.

A Little Ditty

A ditty I have been asked to write and so I thought I might

Do what I can to spread some cheer, amid this rather frightening year.

So - here's a list of don'ts and do's, among them find a few to choose.

DON'T listen more than once to news each day – it's all you need to muse.

DON'T fret about some future time; today be glad you are feeling fine.

And DON'T waste time by feeling sad; just count your blessings and be glad.

DO find a tune to hum or sing; you'll find it lifts up everything.

DO take the chance to read some more, to sleep until you start to snore.

Cook up a storm, enjoy TV, phone all your friends – including me.

Be calm and don't succumb to fear, this too shall pass, be of good cheer!

GOD IS ABLE

Ephesians 3:14, 17, 19-20

For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ....That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye being rooted and grounded in love....And to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God....Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us....unto him be glory.....

“God is able to do just what He said He will do. He gonna fulfil every promise to you.” That sentence is part of the lyrics of a song that I find found very encouraging and I wanted to share it with the readers of the newsletter. It is not always easy when people go through challenging times. Have you ever been in the place where you have done everything you know you could do, obeyed the word of God down to the last letter and still it seems as though you can't see your way out? It's not an easy feeling and this has nothing to do with whether we trust God or not, because if we are truly honest with ourselves we will confess that at times trusting God is not always an easy thing to do and because of that some people give up before they receive the answers to their prayers. What comes easy for one person may not come easy for the next and it's important that we remember to encourage each other and instill hope when given the opportunity.

In the scripture mentioned above, the writer reminds us that the God in whom we trust is able to answer our prayers and go beyond and above what we asked Him to do, because of the great love that He has for us. God has given us promises in His word and also He finds other ways to communicate to us the fact that He has not forgotten us. Hearing from God may come by the way of a word of encouragement coming from an unexpected source; for some it may be a scripture that keeps coming up and for others it may be a thought or feeling that lets you know everything is going to be alright. I choose these different scenarios because we cannot put God in a box and when He has something to communicate to you; He finds ways of doing so because your wellbeing is important to Him. So today, I want to encourage you not to give up on the promises of God for your lives and the things that He as impressed upon your heart that He will do for you. He is a God who keeps His promises and He is able to do what He said that He will do for you. If you are sick, He said in Jeremiah 13:17, I will restore you to health and heal all your wounds. If you have a need, Philippians 4:19 says, “But my God shall supply all your needs according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.” His steadfast love will comfort you, for God is your strength. God loves and cares for us and as He takes care of the birds, He will take care of you who are more valuable. Remember this, God is able and it's my prayer that He will show up for you and meet you at your place and point of need according to His will and purpose for your lives. God bless!

Rev. Dwnette Dickson
